

Season One

Episode 8 - I Am He

This Episode Questions

- Photina, the woman at the well, had five ex-husbands and a lover. What kind of hurt and baggage does a woman like that store up?
- Why can't Jesus & Company just go hang out at someone's house without a bunch of negative people dropping by?
- Does Schmuel want a promotion and fame or is he just a legalist?
- Matthew, as a tax collector, is hated by the Jews and shunned by his family, as if HE invented taxes. How do we judge Government employees who are just doing their job well and being paid for it? How can they, their money and possessions be evil?
- How do Gaius and Quintas feel about Matthew pulling up stakes and joining this movement? What true feelings of theirs, about Matthew, peek through?
- "I love our life." "As do I."
In the end, What did Nicodemus choose and what did it do to him?

Season Wrap-up Questions

- As the team walks off at the end:
 - a) Why is Simon excited?
 - b) What has begun?
 - c) Why is this team together?
- Nicodemus' view toward God will never be the same. How did experiencing Jesus change him?
- Matthew and Simon are each fearless in their own way. What's the difference? Who have you heard mention that lack of fear in them?
- After watching this first season of The Chosen, how would you describe who Jesus really is and why he was in Israel at that time?
- How have these episodes impacted your life?