

Episode 2.2 I Saw You

Note: Jesus said each he called “brings something different to the whole.” We can learn from each. At your table or discussion group, everyone has a contribution too. As you answer these questions, make sure no one is left out.

- Philip challenged Nathaniel, “Come and See.” Who invited you to Come and See and why did you come? Everyone answer.
- Let’s talk about the new daily lifestyle of these who have chosen to follow Jesus. Tonight we saw Matthew sleeping with his head on the firewood he had earlier collected and Ramah waking with her hands as a pillow. Read to the group Luke 9:57-58 (foxes have their holes). Each one at your table name a daily comfort you would have to give up to camp on the ground.
- Read Psalm 121, all 8 verses, written by King David. What do these Jews pray when they first wake up no matter where they slept? What other daily “disciplines” do you see these “disciples” doing that give them quality of life and self-esteem?
- Jesus taught a prayer to the children last season now known as The Lord’s Prayer. Read together Matthew 6:9-13, especially verse 11. How has God provided the disciples daily bread so far?
- What is the difference with our friends in the Chosen and the homeless people in your town? What is the focal point of this camp that is missing in most Social Justice programs? (Hint: one word)
- Tonight you met Philip. What kind of energy does he bring to the team? Why is he more good-natured than Jesus’ disciples? Why does he already seem more like Jesus than the others?
- Matthew showed pain and worry in his eyes before following Jesus. It is still there. Matthew told Philip he feels outside the circle of the world. What’s he trying to figure out now? In your own life what have you felt separated from?
- Matthew said, “Philip and Thaddeus are kind to me.” Describe Philip’s people skills with Matthew compared to how Simon and others have been treating him.
- How did Philip’s words empower Matthew the next time he spoke with Simon? What words and phrases from The Chosen are starting to empower you in your daily life? Or which phrase comes to mind throughout your week?
