

Episode 2.4 The Perfect Opportunity

- When have you fallen from a tree or another high place?
- What special events did your family travel to a big city for?
- Why do young people join gangs and train to kill?
- What are people joining today?
- How did we see Nathaniel's architect skills in this episode?
- What will have to change for the Jews, Gentiles and all peoples to eat together at the tabernacle?
- What prophesy that sounds impossible does Mother Mary know something about?
- Simon's letter to Jesse long ago, quoted a prophecy.

Where else in this episode did we hear that scripture and what did the hearer do when it was spoken?

- How is Simon's vow at the end of his letter similar to the proclamation Nicodemus made about Mary Magdalene's demon possession? What did each proclaim?
- The only part of tonight that is actually in the New Testament was the healing at the pool. Why this elaborate back story? Might we see Simon or his pursuer again?
- Tonight's episode was "The Perfect Opportunity." Jesus said "Sometimes you've got to stir up the water." What did his trip to the pool stir up?
- You Don't need this pool. You only need me. What are some things our world clings to but they really only need Jesus? Share together and pray now.
