

Season 2 Finale

Beyond Mountains

What did you feel when Season 2 suddenly ended before you got to hear this big sermon?

In the opening, we met two partners negotiating with a property owner. What did you notice right away about shorter one's face, the kind of person he was, compared to his partner?

What did swindling the man out of his family's land put into motion into the sweeter partner's mind? What did he realize about the direction of his life?

Why does Mary Magdalene want to have more scriptures in her memory bank? How will that help her down the road? What are some ways people can memorize Bible verses today?

Thomas said, "They all love the Rabbi. They just can't agree on the right way." How is that like the churches today?

Later we met the two salesmen again. What did we learn about each one's outlook on life?

In this episode Jesus jokingly said "Hey everybody! Just keep doing what you've been doing for the last thousand years! Since it's been going so great." People still believe they don't need Christianity. How's that working out for the world now, without a Savior?

Compare the different anticipations of the disciples after passing out the flyers the night before the sermon.

What do you think is going on with Thomas & Ramah?

Why did Jesus choose Matthew to help him transcribe and critique his sermon?

Which characters do you remember Jesus thinking about as he spoke each “blessed are” to Matthew? Which type of person do you see yourself in?

Jesus mentioned his two fathers. Who are the fathers in your life? When in your life have you performed something and your Dad couldn't be there?

When Jesus parted the curtain, how many people were there? What term did Nathaniel use?
