

Season Three
Episode Six

What symbolism did you notice between Pilate's wife's dream and what she saw when she started talking to her husband?

Why does Z think Jesus needs human protection from killers? Would Jesus agree?

"I need Pilate's endorsement if I'm ever to get a promotion." What does Quintus show about his heart and what he really cares about?

What should Gaius do in response to Quintus' order to force out the tent city? Is Gaius happy about his options?

How did you like the disciples' cute jammies?

What happened between Mary and Tamar at the table in the scene about the necklace?

Why did Atticus call a meeting with Governor Pilate? Atticus described Jesus to Pilate as peaceful and magnetic. Since Pilate said he just want peace, does that sound like a cruel tyrant or kind ruler?

Why is Atticus watching the Jesus situation?

Why was Z disguised in the tent city hanging out?

What did you notice Gaius do as he closely observed several tent city dwellers? How does that compare with what Quintus said to do?

As the crowd gathered around Jesus in a circle, Simon noticed two observers: a priest and Gaius. Which one worried Simon and which made him smile?

"It doesn't matter what is put in from of you. You will reject it." How have these religious clergy done that?

The Zealots are going back to the order declaring Simon is dead. How is that a good thing?

What moved Barnaby into action to plead for Shula's healing?

Simon remarked it is more fun if Jesus heals when who is watching?

Sometimes Jesus provides for our needs if we will get our eyes off ourselves and care for others instead. How did that show with Barnaby?

What convinced
Eden to finally tell Simon their loss?
