ARTICLE III

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE IV

1. The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to promote the Christian faith to know God and make Him known in three areas of Evangelization, Training, and Mercy, using all means and methods possible.
2. The general purposes for which the corporation is organized are to receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property, or both, and subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
3. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any Director of the corporation, officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no Director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation: No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
4. The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section

4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

5. The Corporation shall not engage in any act of selfdealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

6. The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

7. The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

8. The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

9. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

10. Upon dissolution of the corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE VIII ACTION WITH MEETING

Any action required by the Act to be taken at a meeting of the directors of the Corporation or any action that may be taken at a meeting of the directors or of any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, is signed by a sufficient number of directors or committee members as would be necessary to make that action at a meeting at which all of the directors or committee members were present and voted. Such written consent shall bear the date of signature of each director or committee member who signs it. A written consent signed by fewer than all the directors or committee members shall not be effective to take the action that is the subject thereof unless, within 60 days after the date of the earliest dated consent delivered to the corporation in the manner required by this article, a consent or consents signed by the required number of directors or committee members is delivered to the corporation at its principal place of business by hand or by certified mail, return receipt requested, and addressed to the president of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX
LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

A director of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation for monetary damages for an act or omission in the director's capacity as a director, except that this article does not authorize the elimination or limitation of the liability of a director to the extent the director is found liable for:

- A. a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation;
- B. an act or omission not in good faith that constitutes a breach of the duty of the director to the corporation or an act of omission that involves intentional misconduct, or a knowing violation of the law;
- C. a transaction from which the director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's offices; or
- D. an act or omission for which the liability of a director is expressly provided by an applicable statute.

ARTICLE X

The corporation shall indemnify its Directors and Officers to the extent permitted by the Texas Business Organizations Code or any superseding statute under the circumstances in which indemnification is permitted.

ARTICLE XI

The corporation shall have no members.

In witness whereof I have herewith set my hand this 21st day of July, 2014

Patricia K. Allen
